CONDITIONS OF SALE.

1.—The highest bidder to be the purchaser; but should any dispute arise between two or more bidders regarding the biddings, the same shall be determined by the Auctioneers, who shall be the sole arbitrators in every matter of dispute, and shall also have the right of rejecting any bidding, or of regulating its amounts, and of bidding for, withdrawing, consolidating, or dividing any lot or lots.

2.—All lots shall, immediately on the fall of the hammer, be at the sole risk and expense of their respective purchasers, who shall give in their names and places of business or abode, and (if required) pay down in cash a deposit of 25 per cent., or such sum as the Auctioneers may demand. The refusal of any person to pay such deposit when required shall be deemed if necessary a proof of the inability of the party so refusing to fulfil these Conditions of Sale, in which case the Auctioneers may consider the lot or lots so knocked down, under such circumstances, unsold, and then proceed to re-sell the same. The Auctioneers will not hold themselves responsible for any faults or errors of description, nor for any loss occasioned by fire, accident, or otherwise, nor for any mis-statement of weight, count, or measurement, unless such last-mentioned mis-statement be discovered by or shown to them on the day of Sale, and their decision as to the amount of allowance in respect thereof shall be final.

3.—All lots are to be taken away at the conclusion of the Sale, or on the following day at latest, whether genuine and authentic or not, with all faults and errors of description, at the expense and risk of the purchaser. The Auctioneers not being responsible for the correct description, genuineness, or authenticity of any lot, no allowance will be made for imperfections or deficiency, or any errors of description of any of the lots comprised in the Sale. To prevent errors, no lots can be removed whilst the auction is proceeding, and the remainder of the purchase money must be absolutely paid on or before delivery, and an order for removal obtained from the Auctioneers or their Clerk.

4.—If one person purchases two or more lots, the price of all must be paid before the delivery of any. No purchaser shall be entitled to anything not described in his lot, but all lots are sold and are to be cleared as shown at the Sale. No Cheques received in payment unless backed by Banker's reference.

5.—Should any of the lots not be cleared within the time above specified, the purchaser thereof shall be held liable to the Auctioneers for any cost of cartage or other expense occasioned by such default, and interest at the rate of five per cent. per annum shall be due and recoverable upon all accounts made the day of Sale until the time of settlement thereof.

6.—If any purchaser neglect or refuse to comply with the above conditions, or any of them, his or her deposit money shall be forfeited, and the lots un-cleared shall be re-sold without further notice by public auction or private contract, at the discretion of the Auctioneers; and any loss occasioned by such second Sale, together with all expenses attendant thereon, and arising under these conditions, shall be paid by such purchaser, and be recoverable as and for liquidated damages. This condition, however, is without prejudice to the right of the Auctioneers to enforce the contract made at this Sale if they think fit, and the entry of the Clerk in the Sale-book, verified by the Auctioneers, shall be deemed full and sufficient evidence of such contract and binding alike upon the vendor and purchaser.

7.—No lots will be transferred from one buyer to another.

8.—No purchaser shall have the right to avail himself of any set-off or other plea for non-payment of his purchase money against the Auctioneers, or their principals, but he shall be liable to the Auctioneers for any unpaid purchase money whether the lots bought have been delivered or not.

9.—The name and address of the vendors or purchasers will, in case of dispute, be given to the purchasers or vendors if required, and the remedy of the purchasers or vendors shall be against the vendors or purchasers only and not against the Auctioneers, who are to be regarded for all intents and purposes as agents for disclosed principals.

10.—The Auctioneers will not hold themselves responsible for any accident which may occur to any person attending the view or Sale.

11.—These conditions are exhibited in a prominent part at the place of Sale, and every purchaser shall be deemed to purchase with full notice of such conditions.

Offices in Conjunction with the Auctioneers.

INSURANCE.

All goods can be Insured if necessary through the Royal Insurance Company, whose offices will be in conjunction with the Auctioneers.

NOTICE.

All Lots will be delivered at the close of each day's Sale and the Auctioneers' Clerks or their Head Porter will alone be responsible for the delivery of goods when each person's Invoice will be checked with the goods.

JOHN PRITCHARD & Co. will execute commissions which must be in writing and the Lots will be procured as cheaply as other bids permit.

The Auctioneers will be greatly obliged if Buyers discover in any drawer or drawers letters or documents of a private nature they return same at once to the Firm's Head Office, Bangor.

GLYNLLIVON PARK.

Purchasers are requested on making the first Purchase to fill in this slip, and hand same to the Auctioneers or their Cashier.

CONDITIONS [OF] SALE.

1.—The highest bidder to be the purchaser; but should any dispute arise between two or more bidders regarding the biddings, the same shall be determined by the Auctioneers, who shall be the sole arbitrators in every matter of dispute, and shall also have the right of rejecting any bidding, or of regulating its amounts, and of bidding for, withdrawing, consolidating, or dividing any lot or lots.

2.—All lots shall, immediately on the fall of the hammer, be at the sole risk and expense of their respective purchasers, who shall give in their names and places of business or abode, and (if required) pay down in cash a deposit of 25 per cent., or such sum as the Auctioneers may demand. The refusal of any person to pay such deposit when required shall be deemed if necessary a proof of the inability of the party so refusing to fulfil these Conditions of Sale, in which case the Auctioneers may consider the lot or lots so knocked down, under such circumstances, unsold, and then proceed to re-sell the same. The Auctioneers will not hold themselves responsible for any faults or errors of description, nor for any loss occasioned by fire, accident, or otherwise, nor for any mis-statement of weight, count, or measurement, unless such last-mentioned mis-statement be discovered by or shown to them on the day of Sale, and their decision as to the amount of allowance in respect thereof shall be final.

3.—All lots are to be taken away at the conclusion of the Sale, or on the following day at latest, whether genuine and authentic or not, with all faults and errors of description, at the expense and risk of the purchaser. The Auctioneers not being responsible for the correct description, genuineness, or authenticity of any lot, no allowance will be made for imperfections or deficiency, or any errors of description of any of the lots comprised in the Sale. To prevent errors, no lots can be removed whilst the auction is proceeding, and the remainder of the purchase money must be absolutely paid on or before delivery, and an order for removal obtained from the Auctioneers or their Clerk.

4.—If one person purchases two or more lots, the price of all must be paid before the delivery of any. No purchaser shall be entitled to anything not described in his lot, but all lots are sold and are to be cleared as shown at the Sale. No Cheques received in payment unless backed by Banker's reference.

5.—Should any of the lots not be cleared within the time above specified, the purchaser thereof shall be held liable to the Auctioneers for any cost of cartage or other expense occasioned by such default, and interest at the rate of five per cent. per annum shall be due and recoverable upon all accounts made the day of Sale until the time of settlement thereof.

6.—If any purchaser neglect or refuse to comply with the above conditions, or any of them, his or her deposit money shall be forfeited, and the lots un-cleared shall be re-sold without further notice by public auction or private contract, at the discretion of the Auctioneers; and any loss occasioned by such second Sale, together with all expenses attendant thereon, and arising under these conditions, shall be paid by such purchaser, and be recoverable as and for liquidated damages. This condition, however, is without prejudice to the right of the Auctioneers to enforce the contract made at this Sale if they think fit, and the entry of the Clerk in the Sale-book, verified by the Auctioneers, shall be deemed full and sufficient evidence of such contract and binding alike upon the vendor and purchaser.

7.—No lots will be transferred from one buyer to another.

8.—No purchaser shall have the right to avail himself of any set-off or other plea for non-payment of his purchase money against the Auctioneers, or their principals, but he shall be liable to the Auctioneers for any unpaid purchase money whether the lots bought have been delivered or not.

9.—The name and address of the vendors or purchasers will, in case of dispute, be given to the purchasers or vendors if required, and the remedy of the purchasers or vendors shall be against the vendors or purchasers only and not against the Auctioneers, who are to be regarded for all intents and purposes as agents for disclosed principals.

10.—The Auctioneers will not hold themselves responsible for any accident which may occur to any person attending the view or Sale.

11.—These conditions are exhibited in a prominent part at the place of Sale, and every purchaser shall be deemed to purchase with full notice of such conditions.

Offices in Conjunction with the Auctioneers.

INSURANCE.

All goods can be Insured if necessary through the Royal Insurance Company, whose offices will be in conjunction with the Auctioneers.

NOTICE.

All Lots will be delivered at the close of each day's Sale and the Auctioneers' Clerks or their Head Porter will alone be responsible for the delivery of goods when each person's Invoice will be checked with the goods.

JOHN PRITCHARD & Co. will execute commissions which must be in writing and the Lots will be procured as cheaply as other bids permit.

The Auctioneers will be greatly obliged if Buyers discover in any drawer or drawers letters or documents of a private nature they return same at once to the Firm's Head Office, Bangor.
